HOW TO

Find Your Ideal San Diego Accident Lawyer

An experienced attorney will help you negotiate the tricks, traps, pit falls and bureaucratic red tape of the insurance companies.

Trying to locate the best San Diego accident lawyer to handle your motor vehicle accident case? It's not as daunting as you may think, provided you take a methodical approach to the process. Yes, it can be a bit confusing to know where to begin, especially as you deal with your injuries or those of a loved one.

You may wonder if you even need to hire a lawyer. One of the main reasons to hire an accident lawyer is so that you can come out at the end without suffering a big financial loss. This all takes the dedication, perseverance and skill of a focused local lawyer. Working with a professional who can help you get the compensation you rightfully deserve is key to experiencing a positive outcome.

An experienced attorney will help you negotiate the tricks, traps, pit falls and bureaucratic red tape of the insurance companies. Bear these tips in mind when searching for a San Diego car accident attorney you can trust.

There are many ways to find a lawyer, depending on which angle you're coming from. Here's how to find a San Diego car accident lawyer...

Based on Location

Choosing a local attorney to handle your car accident case is wise. Not only do they have a local office that's easier to get to, they will have a more intimate knowledge of the area, the types of accidents that occur, where they occur, as well as the insurance companies that operate in the area.

Car accidents in San Diego are only on the rise. In the last decade, in fact, 868 people died on San Diego County freeways and highways, with the most deaths (181) occurring on the most traveled freeway: Interstate 5. Your local lawyer will know this and understand the complexities involved in car accidents in these parts.

It's important to look for a lawyer who works on contingency, meaning they will only charge you if and when you win or settle.

Based on Personality

While there are many other valid reasons for choosing a lawyer (skill and experience of course), you simply can't overlook finding someone with whom you get along. Personalities that clash will make for a long, painful process. By choosing a lawyer you can relate to, this will make it easier to communicate with one another. Just be sure the lawyer you choose returns phone calls promptly and explains the process in a way you can understand.

Based on Price

Most people think of cost when hiring a San Diego car accident attorney. However, it's important to look for a lawyer who works on contingency, meaning they will only charge you if and when you win or settle. That's how Kuzyk Law operates, in fact. This can be a source of great peace of mind for many people. However, you should also be aware what percentage of the final amount your lawyer will take when you do win the case. This will give you a better idea of what you will end up with.
